Gravière Syrah comes from a single parcel planted with Syrah vines from Cornas in 2017 on gravelly soils and a south-facing and steep slope of approximately 1 hectare.

This wine, produced in Bordeaux Entre-deux-Mers is classified Vin de France because Syrah is not among the allowed grapes for the AOC Bordeaux, nevertheless Thomas believed that the climate change would have been favourable for this variety in Bordeaux and he's right.

Very silky and soft, it expresses notes of violets and red rose, tar and underbrush, with a long peppery and astringent final-
